On the evening of October 12th, we met at the Stevens Point church for a pastoral interface meeting. This was intended to introduce a possible pastoral candidate to the 3 congregations. We were introduced to Pastor Joseph Perricellia and his family.

Pastor Joseph explained that he has priorities set up in his life and those are God, Family and Church, in that order. He appeared to be the kind of person that is not afraid to get his hands dirty and do the work needed but warned us that he would not do our work for us. He also stated emphatically that he is very supportive of evangelistic teachings. He claimed not to be perfect and yet appeared to be very honest, sincere and transparent. He did not sidestep any issues and was not afraid to tackle the tough questions. He was the kind of guy that exuded the feeling of "what you see is what you get." He appeared genuine and didn't seem to put on a show for our benefit. He stated that he would not be able to fill the shoes of our old pastor saying that a new pastor was kind of like a marriage. You learn to live with each other and love each other as family does.

Whether he was chosen as our new pastor or not, he asked us to do the following:

- 1. Dream Big - We serve a Big God!
- 2. Pray often - It's our connection with heavenly powers
- 3. Work hard - Our eternal destiny is at stake

I am pleased to report that Pastor Joseph has accepted the call of God and has officially become our new pastor. He is taking charge of our district which includes the churches of Wisconsin Rapids, Stevens Point and Almond. I think we are all excited in the fact that God has given us a leader and relieved us of the stress of finding a new pastor. A settling peace is on is. Praise God for His goodness!

SPOTLIGHT THIS MONTH "BILL BOEHM"

"Bill is a man that loves the Lord and can't wait to see Him face to face"

This is a story about a very interesting man that we in the Almond church have all come to know and to love. He is a man who loves the Lord and is not afraid to tell others of His love and saving grace. Bill has written a book called "God Still Moves" and I would strongly suggest that if you get the chance to read it, you should. Your life will be enriched by its contents.

On any given day you will find Bill spending time with his loving family or doing maintenance work around the church, teaching Sabbath School, preaching a sermon on Sabbath, helping a stranger in some way or other, sharing his life story with them and teaching them God's word. He does this as part of his every day life, whether he is traveling, at work or at play. Bill is one of those people that live his life in a way that is pleasing to God. I'm not saying he's perfect, none of us are but I believe he makes an honest effort and serves as a good example for us all.

ALMOND CHURCH PROJECTS

The Almond SDA church renovation project in our basement is still in the process of being completed.

We began with the cement work that was needed. That has been completed so we are framing in a new wall structure, butted up against the cement wall. We will then add insulation and finish it off with drywall and paint.

The plan is on track to be completed in November of 2015 at a total cost of approximately $500 for materials. Labor has been provided by several of our members who have been under the guidance and expertise of Brian Waters.

Bill Boehm is heading up a project to replace the front doors of our church and give us a well needed face lift to the community. At our business meeting we decided on the type of doors and voted on colors so that they can be ordered. Once they are received, Bill and his team will install them. David Kaplinski of Frank's Hardware in Stevens Point has graciously donated labor for creating inner window "trim" (gothic tracery) for the Almond SDA church. During his spare time he has been shaping curves, routing and beveling the various parts and hopes to have his portion of the project done within a few weeks. We are very grateful for his generous contribution to our church. The next stage will involve staining, varnishing, painting and glass fitting, handled by Doug Durham.

1. If your church closed tomorrow, would the community miss it?
2. "Evangelism is the heart of Christianity" (Ev. p1) Does your church have a strong heart, or heart at all?
3. Let's start reviving our heart by getting involved in personal evangelism. Here are some examples of personal evangelism that you may not have thought of...
 - A. Keep Bible tracts in your purse or pocket & daily give them out wherever you go. (Minimum of 1 per day) We will have tracts for you at church every Sabbath for you take with you.
 - B. Mail tracts to random names in the phone book.
 - C. Mail tracts with your bills as you pay them.

"I remember thinking, I'm going to go to church every Sunday!"

PERSONAL TESTIMONY OF JOANNE TESS

I grew up attending the Evangelical United Brethren Church in Tomah, WI. When I was in High School, we merged with the Methodists. Dad worked nights at the V.A. hospital and my Mom never learned to drive so it was not very often that we got to go to church, unless my grandparents came to get me and my sister and have us spend the weekend with them in town. After graduating from Western Wisconsin Technical Institute in La Crosse, I got a job at Fort McCoy, moved into town in my own apartment and was finally on my own. I remember thinking to myself, "I'm going to go to church every Sunday."

One late afternoon my Aunt and cousin stopped by and invited me to go with them to some meetings at the Seventh Day Adventist Church so I went along with them. Elder Bushnell was the Evangelist who conducted the meetings. His wife held cooking classes each day. I learned a lot from attending.

The Bible opened up to me. I learned about the Sabbath, the state of the dead and much more. At the end of the meetings I was baptized. When asked if I wanted to be baptized, I said, "Don't I have to study more?"

I had a lot of struggles in the beginning but Jesus helped me through them. With His help I overcame many of them. Jesus has been with me all these years since. I still have more to learn and hope to be spending eternity with Jesus.

And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. (2:11)

The Elijah of the last days

Contributed by Head Elder Mike Stephenson, Wisconsin Rapids Church

Throughout history, God has always had a herald to call His people to turn back to God. In the Bible, He has used men such as Elijah, Elisha, and John the Baptist to deliver a message that sparked revival and reform among God's people. This message is called the Elijah message. 7 WAYS TO SUPPORT YOUR PASTOR'S WIFE

BY RON EDMONDSON

One of the toughest jobs in the church is that of being a pastor's wife.

It has been called the loneliest job in the church.

No doubt I have one of the best. Cheryl has a professional job as an accountant, is an excellent mom and wife, but the demands on her as my wife are some of the most overwhelming.

Still she handles it with grace and a smile.

In this post, I want to help you know how to honor and protect your pastor's wife.

Truthfully, I am not talking on behalf of Cheryl. She would never ask for this and frankly we are mostly in a good church environment as far as the way our staff and spouses are treated. Plus, we came out of the business world into ministry. We were older and more seasoned by life, so we've always approached things differently – protected our personal time more.

I know, however, because of my work with pastors that many pastor's wives are facing burnout, a sense of loneliness, and some even struggle to come to church. That should not be.

Here are 7 ways to honor your pastor's wife:

Do not put too many expectations on her.

Regardless of the church size, she cannot be everywhere, at everything and know everyone's name and family situation and still carry out her role in the home. She simply can't. Don't expect her to be super-human.

Do not expect her to oppose her husband.

She will be protective of her spouse. Hopefully you would equally protect your spouse. If you bad mouth her husband she's likely to respond in a way you don't want her to – but should expect her to. Don't complain if she does.

Protect her from gossip.

She does not need to know the "prayer concerns" that are really just a way of spreading rumors. And, you know when that's the case. Check your motives in what you share. Don't share what you don't have permission to share.

Let her have a family.

The pastor is pulled in many directions. The family understands the nature of the job. Life doesn't happen on a schedule. But, in reality, there are often unreasonable demands on the pastor. That always impacts the family. If you can – limit your demands to normal working hours for the church and the pastor. Send an email rather than calling at home if it's not an immediate concern. It will help the pastor have a family life.

Include her without placing demands or expectations on her.

That's the delicate balance. The pastor's wife is often one of the loneliest women in the church. She rarely knows whom to trust and often is excluded from times that are just for fun. Don't be afraid to treat her as a normal human being. She is. But, if she says no – don't hold it against her either.

Never repeat what she says.

Ever. If the pastor's wife happens to share information with you about the church or her personal life, keep it to yourself. Always. There will be temptation to share her words as "juicy news", but you will honor her by remaining silent. And, over time, you will build her trust and her friendship.

Pray for your pastor's family.

Daily would be awesome. And much needed.

Finally, if your church really wants to honor the pastor's wife, find ways to give her time away with her husband and/or family. That is probably what she needs the most.

It is very difficult for a pastor to be effective without a supportive spouse.)

PERSONAL GREETING

Dear Brothers and Sisters of the Stevens Point Seventh-day Adventist Church District:

Please allow me to take the opportunity to express how grateful we are for the extremely warm reception we received at the interface meeting. All of you were so gracious and loving and my family really felt comfortable with their experience. We feel this call is going to be a wonderful fit for both the churches and our family.

We are looking forward to meeting those who were unable to be at the interface meeting and getting to know every one of you. I would also like to thank those who were able to come for investing your time in the process of seeking God's will during the placement of a new pastoral family. I know the conference as well as myself are thankful for the great turn out. Your conference leadership team has been working hard on your behalf to find the best fit possible to serve God's churches of the Stevens Point area.

Let me reassure everyone that my greatest desire is to finish the work of reaching as many souls as possible with the Everlasting Gospel of Jesus Christ and the Three Angels Messages in preparation for His soon triumphant return. I will be working closely with your Elders and elected church leaders to accomplish this goal. As we work together I request that you pray for us and prepare to be called upon to make contributions to achieving our mission as God has blessed you with talents and His Holy Spirit for this very time. Each of you have been called of the Lord to be a valuable member of this outreach effort. There is not one part of the body of Christ which has no purpose or function. All are needed to help the body function as intended.

As I stated in the meeting, I am asking the churches (every member) to do three things: 1. Dream Big (we serve a big God and He is able to do far more than we can dream or imagine). 2. Pray often (everyone is gifted with time to pray, God is still in the business of answering prayers). 3. Work Hard (this is where all of us come together to make ministry memories and to see God's magnificent glory on display).

Each church will face its individual struggles and difficulties, however, I believe that if we pray and seek heavenly assistance we can overcome. God has promised us that not even the gates of hell can prevail against His church. I believe this promise. I also believe that with faith and hard work God can accomplish miracles for us. We are living at an exciting and unprecedented time in history to reach the masses with the truth which transforms.

Thank you again for this opportunity to serve Christ's Church and His last day people.

Yours in Christ Jesus

Bill Boehm (Continued from page 1)

Bill has had a lot of experiences to show how God has intervened in his life, guiding him. God had his hand in bringing him back safely from Viet Nam to marry his then fiancé Mary (43 years and counting), and even there to guide him through the things necessary to bring him to salvation through the truth of Jesus Christ.

During his extensive travels he and Mary have visited the holy lands and stood on the grounds where Jesus stood. I can only imagine how that must have felt. During a recent trip to his home, he showed me the "World Famous Boehm Museum." Ok, maybe not world famous but well worth the time to see his collection of memorabilia from the holy lands, history of churches and other artifacts, and yes some very interesting war posters. If you are ever asked if you want to see this exhibit, don't pass it up. It's well worth the price of admission (free) to see these items and listen to his stories and interesting facts.

Let's sum this up. Bill is a man that loves the Lord and can't wait to see Him face to face. He has made it his task to share the Gospel with anyone who will listen and to preach the truth of the three angel's messages. I look forward to seeing Bill in heaven, walking with the Lord in the cool of the evening.

9. The Elijah of the last days will be supremely interested in glorifying God. (See 1st Kings 18:37 and John 3:30). “I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service.” Romans 12:1.
10. The Elijah of the last days will repair the altar of God. (See 1st Kings 18:30 and Matthew 3:1-2). “And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.” Isaiah 58:12.
11. The Elijah of the last days will speak messages that spark revival and reformation. (See 1st Kings 18:19-21 and Mark 1:4-5). “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.” Philippians 4:13. “For it is God who works in you both to will and to do for His good pleasure.” Philippians 2:13. “For thus says the High and Lofty One Who inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, With Him who has a contrite and humble spirit. To revive the spirit of the humble. And to revive the heart of the contrite ones.” Isaiah 57:15.
12. The Elijah of the last days will point people to Christ. (See 1st Kings 18:36 and John 1:29). “Saying with a loud voice, “Fear God and give glory to Him, for the hour of His judgment has come, and worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water.” Revelation 14:7. “Here is the patience of the saints, here are those who keep the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus.” Revelation 14:12.

Be Thou my pattern, Lord
Wield your sharp sword.
Keep my eye single
In searching Your word.

Train me to feast on Your Beautiful face.
Cut through my pride, and
Your image emplace!

I would be like You!
But how? Oh, I pray
Take my poor heart of stone,
Help me obey!

King of the universe,
Lover of men,
Fearless defender,
Sinners' best friend.

Humble me.
Cleanse me.
Remake me like Thee.
Fill me with love,
That will help others see
Just what You're like,
Why you died on a tree!

*Contributed by Dorothy TessChurch Plant Meeting

On this beautiful Sabbath afternoon of October 10th, a group of us met back at the Almond church to discuss the possibility of planting a church in a town nearby. The meeting was led by Eric Anderson who has a burden on his heart for church planting and serving the Lord. I'm happy to say that there were 30 people in attendance, representatives from 4 different churches. We all felt that there is a great need, especially if you look at smaller communities that have no SDA memorial to God. We are told in Matt. 9:37-38 “Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.” It looks like He is sending forth the laborers needed. We are also told not to keep waiting because the harvest time is now. John 4:35 says “Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.” The time is now and we are the laborers ready to do the work necessary. It was decided to form a “Church Plant Leadership Team” to oversee and guide the rest that want to serve the Lord in this way. This team will tentatively meet Sabbath afternoons at the Almond church beginning at 3:30 and will continue to make plans to get this project started. There is much work to do and little time to do it so let's all join together on this worthwhile project. If you can't assist physically, please keep this team and their efforts in your prayers that God's will be done and more souls are brought to eternal life.

WRAO Radio

By the end of November we plan to have a tower up and broadcasting full power. There are still lots of things that need to be done.

The Radio Committee: The Radio committee is working hard to make sure all the ducks are in a row for the tower to be constructed, and there are quite a few ducks. Plus, right now the committee is working with 3ABN to gain some programming. May the Lord bless their efforts.

The workers: It takes a lot of people to make the tower go up. There are cement people, some people who will be putting up a small building, putting up a tower, putting an antenna on the tower, making sure there is the right amount of electricity going to the right places. May the Lord keep them safe. (Written by Luke Anderson)

The Elijahs of the last days are being sent to prepare the way for the coming of The Lord. His church has fallen asleep, pursuing its own lazy dream of His return, even in the midst of prophecy being rapidly fulfilled. The Elijah message is designed to stir the church and you personally from the drowsiness of waiting on the Lord, into re-energized participants in spreading the gospel to this world of darkness. If you have lost sight of the prize, if your light has been dimmed, and your fire cooled, God is calling for His people to be the Elijahs of the last days to bring revival into men's hearts and spirit into His last day church. A final thought about the Elijahs of the last days. Ellen G. White tells us in Education, page 57: "The greatest want of the world is the want of men – men who will not be bought or sold; men who in their inmost souls are true and honest; men who do not fear to call sin by its right name; men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole; men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall." Should we do anything less for Our Lord?

ERIC ANDERSON ORDAINED

Eric Anderson was ordained on October 17 for the position of elder by Pastor David Guerrero during our normal Sabbath services. He has held the new position since being elected but time had not permitted the ordaining process until now. His entire family was present for the ordination service.
